MAP

Intelligent people make smart decisions based on pertinent information. It is our goal today to give you enough information to make an educated decision. But, if you need some more time to go home and process all the information you receive today, we understand. Here are some of the highlights of the My Artist's Place program.

Pursuing the Entertainment Industry Without MAP is Difficult

- Do you have a game plan?
- Who do you rely on for support?
- Are you prepared to spend thousands of dollars annually on training classes and photography?
- Do you have the time it takes to research an overwhelming variety of services, teachers, agents, managers, and photographers?
- You won't have access to the collection of resources for information, referrals and discounts that are crucial to your child's success.

LOOKING INTO COMPETITIVE COMPANIES IS A WASTE OF YOUR VALUABLE TIME

- The only other competitor we know only focuses on acting. We offer acting, singing, dancing, beauty pageants, fashion design and word of mouth marketing.
- No other company offers pre-negotiated discounts with A-list companies.
- Most children's programs do the classes and photos themselves. We offer referrals to the best companies we could find.
- If we find another referral that is complementary, we can add it to the group. Or if we find a better vendor we can switch for the betterment of our clients.
- You will not find another company that offers an On the Job Training approach to the industry.

- We offer customer service with skilled professionals, as well as an online community dedicated to make this journey as fun and effortless as possible.

You Don't Want Your Child To Miss Out On A Life Enriching Experience

- Your child will not get to benefit from the personal growth and life skills that come from the classes and work experience.
- You don't want to deprive your child of getting a head start in discovering a future vocation or passionate hobby.
- Your child won't get to learn what it takes to work with adults in a professional setting.
- Your child will miss out on participating in one of the most exciting facets of the U.S. economy.

Reasons To Follow MAP's Proven System

- No other company has assembled a more time efficient, systematic, and economical approach to getting youth started in the entertainment industry.
- We have already documented this system in other cities with kids just like yours.
- We will introduce you to the most credible, experienced, kid-friendly instructors in the country who can develop your child's talent.
- Our program is affordable and practical. Most comparable programs are much more costly with little opportunity for job placement.
